4	08/01/2019 10:26 AM ID: 103592765	children's happiness
5	08/01/2019 10:27 AM ID: 103590162	My daughter loves the school :) I cant tell specifically what it is but she is keen in going to school and that is a great achievement. Well done!
6	08/01/2019 10:28 AM ID: 103589071	The children are happy, their curriculum is very varied (workshops, trips etc), my child is making good progress academically and does not seem to be overwhelmed by the pace, I prefer that homework is not excessive - the kids work hard all day and deserve time off at the weekend, having parents meetings with the teacher several times a year is very helpful to track progress
7	08/01/2019 10:29 AM ID: 103590752	the children seem generally happy. some great teachers work at sheringdale.
8	08/01/2019 10:29 AM ID: 103589967	1. Provides a happy, safe environment. 2. Teaches kindness & respect. 3. Staff is always helpful and kind.
9	08/01/2019 10:31 AM ID: 103594239	It offers a very broad and varied curriculum
10	08/01/2019 10:35 AM ID: 103597124	Miss clark is amazing. The staff are all so lovely, my son feels safe here

65	21/01/2019 11:23 AM ID: 105185282	Teaching
66	21/01/2019 11:23 AM ID: 105184548	Sheringdale does a superb job at encouraging children to gain confidence. My daughter is incredibly shy, and she has taken baby steps towards overcoming this - small steps, but constant and impressive improvement. This is entirely down to the staff at Sheringdale. Moreover, the sense of ownership of the school given to the children continues to be impressive.

4	08/01/2019 10:26 AM ID: 103592765	more transparent in terms of how fees are broken down for trips and activities. I also wish there was more sports as one day of PE is not enough and there are not enough sports classes offered in the clubs.
5	08/01/2019 10:27 AM ID: 103590162	I believe kids should practice more in order not to forget what they learnt. One way to achieve this is to increase homework. Today a simple homework is given by Friday and collected on Wednesday and I am not sure even how the feedback is given back to kids if they confidently learnt the subject! I believe more homework and more feedback needed
6	08/01/2019 10:28 AM ID: 103589071	I'm happy with the school - everyone seems to care about the kids and their education and do their best for them.

16	08/01/2019 10:39 AM ID: 103599423	It let Year 5 parents know that their children will not be helped in any way to prepare for the Wandsworth Test which will of course affect how well they do in this test. There was no information given on this matter to parents in Year 5 before this year's Wandsworth Test which could have seriously disadvantaged those children who might have needed to do well in the test most.
17	08/01/2019 10:44 AM ID: 103596771	the teacher could provide paper support about the technique taught, especially for math. For some of the exercises, the teaching method is completely different from what it used to be and as the kids don't remember what they have been told in class, it's confusing for them when I explain in a different manner. If we all could have the same method, we could explain it in the same way.
18	08/01/2019 10:46 AM ID: 103600661	lunch time playground monitoring was improved. There are too many instances of children doing things that they shouldn't which could be prevented with more adult supervision, eg hitting, one child pushing another into the storage boxes, snatching play items leaving the child to have to explain why that is not acceptable, older children in either Y3 or Y4s intimidating Y1s are some of the examples from this winter term alone. Secondly, the sport provision has improved but is still not consistent. My child had one PE lesson in the summer term outside of the sports 'day'. Thirdly, art and computing are a fabulous provision but again hit and miss on the timetable. If the children are supposed to have them weekly as we were told they would then make sure that's what you do.

20	08/01/2019 10:50 AM ID: 103602520	there was a holistic approach to learning - it is not just about maths and english. 41	08/01/2019 16:58 PM ID: 103671791	It was a bit more focused on reading and writing from the beginning. It seems to lag behind other local schools on reading in reception. I also think that PE should be taught 2 or 3 times a week instead of just once. It would be nice if pudding was not available every day of the week but was instead replaced with yoghurt or fruit.
42	08/01/2019 17:17 PM ID: 103689250	The school does a good job of teaching my child given the limits set by the government in terms of testing and curriculum. Children should enjoy learning and enjoy school. Sadly I cannot say that my child enjoys learning at school at the moment, given the heavy emphasis on academic testing set by the government.
43	08/01/2019 17:28 PM ID: 103690812	it could stretch more able kids more. There were better music provision.
44	08/01/2019 17:45 PM ID: 103693089	the 3.30pm finish on Fridays was re-instated, as I strongly feel the parents were misled as to why it had to be carried out, and would expect a new survey being sent out to all parents again.
45	08/01/2019 18:02 PM ID: 103690234	The headmistress was more involved in the school life and would show us more enthusiasm at the few children's shows. Enrolling proper French and Spanish language teachers whom mother tongue is the language they are teaching. The PE teachers would be trained at teaching different kind of children by having taken some pedagogic lessons. The chef would take some cooking lessons for cooking tasting and healthy meals. The canteen should be bigger for welcoming the whole school without giving cold meals to the last children waiting to be served. Creating a school library. Having a music teacher and using some instruments into music lessons for the whole class/school. Having more clubs such as cooking club, French club, some free clubs too! The unacceptable behaviour were punished and the anti bullying policy followed as the bullies have to be taught they are wrong and teaching them was is unacceptable including during football games and playground time/ lunch time/ outside class time. The children were taught before leaving primary school how doing revisions as it is a skill that would be very useful during their whole school time. The children would be prepared for the Wandsworth test by creating an after school club practicing the verbal/non verbal tests instead of assuming that the parents will get a tutor for helping the children.
46	08/01/2019 19:24 PM ID: 103703567	more advanced communication, sometimes things are a bit last minute, more thoughtful scheduling of parents events eg parents evenings, concerts. Very difficult to attend for working parents.

60	10/01/2019 20:21 PM ID: 103929223	Mix up classes at each year end. I recognise this may cause some children not to be with their best friend but I think it would be in the children's long term best interest. It allows children who wind each other up to be separated. And children who are 'too close' but to the detriment of the quieter child to be separated. I feel the school has become more business focused and less nurturing. A lot of the children management and parent support seems to be left to deputy head.

67	16/01/2019 08:36 AM ID: 104371775	We currently had a better teacher that could handle the children and more activity (PE) is required. Gymnastic classes should be looked at as they were always oversubscribed and girls love doing this but they have no ability to do it currently at Sherringdale
68	16/01/2019 11:52 AM ID: 104398920	more of the teaching staff was experienced, rather than newly qualified; either more clubs (or expand the sizes) are offered or there is a way to distribute them more equitably, it can be very frustrating to miss out on clubs the kids want to join

80	21/01/2019 11:23 AM ID: 105184548	the standard of teaching was more steady. Sheringdale has some fantastic staff, and as in every walk of life, some are less so - less experienced, and less capable of maintaining an acceptable level of behaviour in the younger children. In addition, if there is a way for the school to further engage the parents, this could only be beneficial. Again, the blame may not lie at the feet of the school - I strongly suspect that this is down to some parents themselves - however, if there is any way to evolve a more inclusive approach coming from the top, then this could only be for the good.

85	21/01/2019 11:31 AM ID: 105185558	Homework would be achievable independently (especially early years); less screen time (my child gets headaches doing assessments); parents/carers volunteering is encouraged as much as before; more professional after school clubs

99	21/01/2019 12:10 PM ID: 105189105	I have concerns over 1: the quality of break time supervision. My Y1 child has experienced bullying from the same older children whilst in reception and this year, which doesn't seem to be being dealt with effectively and is now negatively impacting on how he feels about going to school. 2: the attendance certificates are very disheartening for those who aren't able to achieve 100% attendance through no fault of their own (illness & unavoidable hospital appointments for example). 3: I'm uncomfortable with the headteachers certificates / how they are awarded. My Y3 child only received his 1st certificate last term (I wasn't even aware of the certificates existence before this). This is despite consistently glowing feedback at parents evenings and being told continuously from reception onwards that they are of a high standard academically and behaviourally ("an example to the rest of the class"). Luckily he is quite internally motivated but I can only imagine how he must have felt seeing his very hard work go unrecognised term after term, and am grateful that his new teacher saw to rectify this. My worry is that my child is slightly quieter / more considered in approach than other children in their class and are therefore at a disadvantage because of this? I would also argue that really all children, in KS1 at least, are equally deserving of recognition? They are all trying their hardest in their own way and I'm concerned by potentially a narrow definition of what equals success and how this impacts on boys particularly. 4: The sports provision seems to be better this year which is a relief, it would be great if this can be maintained or even improved further. 104	21/01/2019 12:44 PM ID: 105195951	I have been disappointed with the running of the nursery this year. At the start it felt very chaotic and there wasn't the same sense of welcome or structure that we had when my first child attended. My child is happy there but I do feel the induction weeks could have been better organised and that the activities couldn't be better structured. I sometimes feel that my child isn't being advanced to higher levels in their reading (year one) as they seem to stay at a level until I push for a change. I wondered if this is something which the school could be more proactive about. It would also be great if there were more after school clubs, or more spaces at existing clubs as I knke that demand exceeds available places.

109	21/01/2019 13:24 PM ID: 105195412	Stop watching tv in nursery- they could use that time to sing a song or have circle time with the children. 2. Create a buddy bench and friendship circle for children who may be new/struggling to build friendships. 3. More club options for popular choice like art. 12 art places for 120 kids means most don't get the opportunity to participate. Many working parents also use these clubs to help with childcare (beyond lighthouse) and would really enhance the school if more were available. 4. Clearly list where you need/would like parent volunteers. Parents eager to help and have talent in web design, education, recruitment and would love to volunteer their time if it was clearly communicated each term what the school needs beyond just the monetary funding

111	21/01/2019 13:51 PM ID: 105203422	More support to SEN children - although I understand that this is a challenging environment and under funded. More opportunities for children to explore creative side of the curriculum. More preparation for the Wandsworth test for year 5 children. I think the nursery provision is not sufficiently resourced to deliver the proper preparation for Reception. In previous years the nursery has been able to deliver this.

113	21/01/2019 14:11 PM ID: 105207965	return to 3:30 finishes on Friday
114	21/01/2019 14:40 PM ID: 105211246	There was a clear policy of how to deal other kids unacceptable behaviour and bullying. There is more attention/care of kids while in the playground. There are separate toilets for small kids and bigger kids.

115	21/01/2019 15:33 PM ID: 105219030	there was more inclusion of working parents; curriculum meetings outside of school hours so they could join and understand/ask questions about what children are doing.
116	21/01/2019 15:37 PM ID: 105220107	the teacher Beth in reception was a little more focused. She doesn't always inspire confidence
117	21/01/2019 16:29 PM ID: 105226605	More variety of after school clubs, better music provisions and extra curricular activities in general, more options for sport aside from football, made the school enrichment fund a compulsory contribution or at least a direct debit to ensure it is paid. It's the least parents can afford in such an affluent area.
118	21/01/2019 16:35 PM ID: 105187509	Improve toilet facilities for nursery, specifically taps which little children find hard to turn on. Would in turn improve hygiene and prevent germs being spread among the children. Scooter pegs or similar for storing scooters. Trying to park a bike at school is tricky with scooters all over the place.
119	21/01/2019 16:58 PM ID: 105230096	I think everything is fine
120	21/01/2019 17:02 PM ID: 105230265	sport activities and facilities needed to improve
121	21/01/2019 17:03 PM ID: 105230287	giving more able children more opportunities to challenge themselves, both in the class room and in homework. Separately, I think the school could be stricter if they engaged more with parents on day to day things (calls for volunteers eg for maths and reading no longer happen) and on the bigger strategic challenges the school faces.
122	21/01/2019 20:18 PM ID: 105244297	Taught foreign languages more
123	21/01/2019 20:27 PM ID: 105242557	There was a broader curriculum (for example teaching of languages, music and/or art and less emphasis on SATs results). A uniform to prevent children being teased for what they wear and constantly comparing themselves to each other. Clubs/activities for all the age groups (e.g. offering something which enabled working parents to use the nursery). I also think improvements could be made to offer healthier food.
124	21/01/2019 20:34 PM ID: 105245171	the current nursery provision were more rigorous, more challenging and more stretching, with less TV watched, clearer themes to the learning and more phonics. Year 2 seems very well organised although the monitoring of reading development could be stronger with higher expectations of what children should be reading.
125	22/01/2019 06:44 AM ID: 105259965	The children had twice weekly access to playing on grass and bigger areas
126	22/01/2019 07:54 AM ID: 105263084	Friday afternoon finish is too early making it difficult for parents to collect them

1	08/01/2019 10:21 AM ID: 103589453	the calendar page was improved.
2	08/01/2019 10:26 AM ID: 103591769	there was set schedule for updating it...i.e. I realise there is a ton of info on there but do not have the bandwidth to check it for changes
3	08/01/2019 10:28 AM ID: 103589071	I think its fine. Does the job, relatively easy to navigate.
4	08/01/2019 10:29 AM ID: 103590752	happy with the website

11	08/01/2019 11:15 AM ID: 103615860	maybe a few more pictures? But I think it's fine as it is.
12	08/01/2019 11:43 AM ID: 103627491	The website is difficult to navigate and is not always updated but it does the do
13	08/01/2019 12:23 PM ID: 103633782	It's great. Calendar navigation could be a bit easier and include all the start of term/half-term dates, early closings, start/end of clubs dates
14	08/01/2019 12:29 PM ID: 103638959	The navigation was clearer and it was easier to find information you need
15	08/01/2019 12:54 PM ID: 103642379	It's perfect as it is.
16	08/01/2019 15:08 PM ID: 103668911	It had more details about the children's curriculum or any requirements for each year group and activities coming up.
17	08/01/2019 15:41 PM ID: 103674641	There was a calendar that was easier to follow
18	08/01/2019 16:58 PM ID: 103671791	It was kept fully up-to-date as some of the information on there is quite outdated. I also find the Sims Agora and Sims Activities websites extremely difficult to understand and a simpler process that allows you to book and pay in the same place would be better.
19	08/01/2019 17:28 PM ID: 103690812	details of homework were posted on the class pages.
20	08/01/2019 20:15 PM ID: 103707330	Class teachers could blog updates and news from their classroom,- the class pages section of the website is not always very current.
21	08/01/2019 20:19 PM ID: 103708136	it was updated more regularly
22	09/01/2019 09:07 AM ID: 103755559	Individual class pages poorly maintained
23	09/01/2019 15:12 PM ID: 103797073	Very informative , has everything.
24	09/01/2019 20:44 PM ID: 103831630	It was more interactive

47	21/01/2019 16:58 PM ID: 105230096	Everythink is fine
48	21/01/2019 17:03 PM ID: 105230287	it could share more information about what is going on. I recognise it is time-consuming for staff to compile updates at a year-group or school wide level, but more frequent updates would be appreciated.
49	21/01/2019 20:27 PM ID: 105242557	It's fine
50	21/01/2019 20:34 PM ID: 105245171	No improvements to suggest
51	22/01/2019 08:04 AM	I think having the calender open on the website for anyone to see presents a security
