

Nursery Newsletter
January 14th 2022

This week we have ...

- Been reading a new book called 'Bog Baby' by Jeanne Willis and Gwen Milward.
- Made our own Bog Babies out of playdough and papier mâché.
- Painting and drawing our own Bog Babies and thinking about habitats that would make them happy.
- Looking at number formation—this week we have been focussing on how to form zero and one.
- Using the calendar daily—talking about the day of the week, the date, the month, the weather and the season.

Next week we will...

- Continue to focus on 'Bog Baby' by Jeanne Willis and Gwen Milward and begin talking about the beginning, middle and end of the story. Also to introduce the terms author and illustrator.
- Look at different animal habitats and discuss why it is important not to remove animals from their habitat.
- Begin making some of our own habitats.
- Continue with our number rhymes—we will be learning how to form number 2 and 3.
- Continue to make comparisons between objects focussing on size and weight.
- Continue to work on rhythm and rhyme in phonics.

To help at home you could...

- Continue to practice number formation and look at different animal habitats.

Any other business...

- We are running low on clothes for our dolls, so if you have any spare doll/baby clothes you would like to donate it would be very much appreciated.

Have a lovely weekend! Jo, Belinda, Ros and Lesley (The Nursery Team)
